Although the M.Sc. Program WASTE is taught in English, the pre-requisite for admission is basic knowledge in German Language (Basic User A1 under the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages - CEFR). Furthermore, the mandatory German language classes during the first and second semester are a part of the M.Sc. WASTE curriculum, which will lead to Basic User A2 under the CEFR.

Students who are not German native speakers or cannot show a German proficiency certificate (German language knowledge Basic User A2 under the CEFR) has to participate in the German Language Intensive Course starting on Friday, September 1st, 2023. The intensive course prepares for extensive German Language Courses that will take place in the first and second semester.

Students with good German knowledge Basic User A2 might be exempted from the mandatory intensive course and from the mandatory two semester courses by filling in this form of exemption. The students being exempted from the German Course have to participate and pass two courses each with 3 ECTS from the key qualifications catalogue.

If you can show a German proficiency certificate (Basic User A2 under the CEFR) you can apply for exemption from the German Courses.

I hereby apply for exemption from the German Language Courses:

- I already uploaded/sent my German Language certificate (together with my application)
- I hereby attach my German Language certificate
- Others: _____

Date Signature (Mandatory handwritten signature)

Please return the filled form as soon as possible - Wednesday, May 17th, 2023 at the very latest. The form must not be sent by post, it is sufficient to submit it by email to cd-waste@ifk.uni-stuttgart.de
